DAHLE®

DAHLE® nanoCLEAN

Air purifier

Small and compact:
Unique air purifier for a fresh air zone

The DAHLE nanoCLEAN with unique HNF³ nanoparticle filter not only removes mites, dusts and particles from the air, harmful nanoparticles down to 10 nanometers (10 times smaller than a speck of dust) are permanently absorbed too

The air purifier from Dahle creates a clean and healthy feel-good zone - With five physical filter effects, completely without ionization and ozone formation

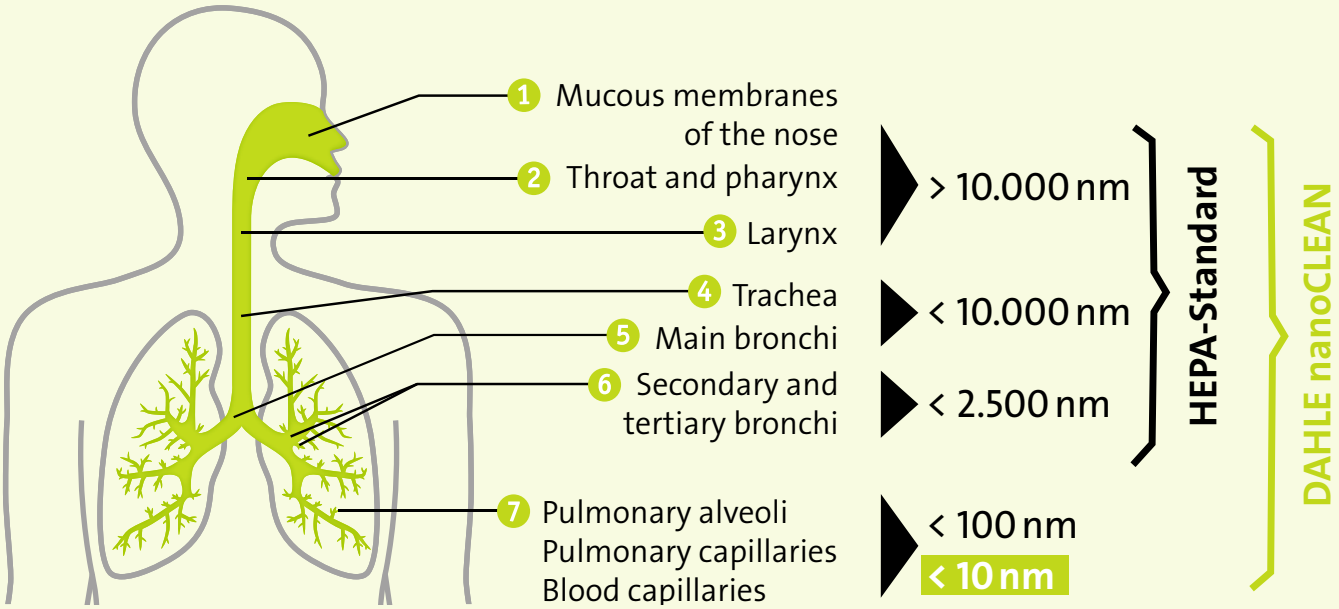
Permanently absorbs respirable, hazardous nanoparticles down to 10 nanometres

Unique: filters up to 99.4% of all harmful particles from room air to create a clean and healthy feel-good environment

Positioned in the immediate vicinity of a fax machine or printer, the high-performance nanoparticle filter absorbs 99.4% of all particles before they can enter room air

Small in size and weight, yet great in its performance – The DAHLE nanoCLEAN air purifier as a compact companion when traveling



DAHLE's unique HNF³ nanoparticle filter filters more than standard HEPA filters, setting a new benchmark in breathing clean and healthy air

Compact and ideal for allergy sufferers:
The perfect filter for nanoparticles, pet hair, dust etc.

Light
Thanks to its low weight of less than one kilogram, it is easy to transport. In it´s design the air cleaner is kept simple and therefore timeless.

Compact
Thanks to its compact dimensions and low weight, the air purifier can be placed wherever it is required.

Quiet
The device is very quiet. It can also be used in sleep during the night, and people with allergies or asthma can have a restful sleep.

Environmentally conscious
The air purifier is non-ionizing and does not cause ozone. The filter is resistant to mold formation.
