Bosch 2 608 602 383 angle grinder accessory Grinding disc:

Working on a construction site often means you need to cut various building materials. A versatile cutting disc helps you save time and effort. That's why we created the PRO Multi Construction. We used a special mix of abrasives to ensure it will cut different materials effectively.

The PRO Multi Construction Bonded Cutting Disc is a great choice for construction workers who need to cut different materials. The disc is made using a mix of silicon carbide and aluminium oxide grains to make sure it can cut steel, metal, stone, brick, and plastic. Thanks to its thin kerf you work with less noise and get clean, accurate cuts – with only little pressure.
