Amazone Centaur, 1:32, 295x200x46mm

Siku 2069 scale model Farm machinery Preassembled 1:32:

The Amazone Centaur is the work unit for large tractors, and is an essential part of every successful farming operation. The multifunctional soil cultivation machine is perfect for all activities, and seems to have no trouble in mastering even the most difficult challenges: from stubble cultivation and primary soil tillage, to topsoil loosening, to seedbed preparation. The frame of the robust model machine is made of metal and, in contrast, the cultivator tines and disc harrow elements are made of plastic. The tyres are made of rubberised material, and have an agricultural profile, so they provide perfect grip even in deep and heavy soil. For an even more realistic play experience, the packer rollers at front and rear can be turned, and in addition the frame can be folded and fixed in the transport position. The imposing machine comes in its original Amazone green paintwork, with orange plastic details.
