schleich BAYALA Crystal Dragon:

There is a buzzing in the air: The crystal dragon shoots through the skies of BAYALA® at full speed. It hugs its wings close to its slender body so that it can go faster. It looks like a blue arrow. Where is it going in such a hurry? But the crystal dragon can also go slow: On calm days, it spreads its elegant wings and sails high up through the thermals. Then it can be seen from afar and attracts admiring glances. It looks wonderful!
